Flash From the Past: What's Happened This Month?

Learning Community Saturday

This year's Learning Community Saturday was full of connecting and learning as we welcomed local agencies, program alums and current students to share their knowledge and advice. We look forward to seeing all of our students at the next Learning Community Saturday in February 24th!

Pet of the Month

Ollie, according to the PetsMart he was adopted from, is a 4 year old Gray Tabby cat who loves to play and cause mischief. The list of nicknames is rather long, consisting of “Ollie Ollie Oxen-Free,” ‘Goomies,’ ‘Gumbo,’ and ‘Bubba.’

Two Fun Facts:

- (1) His name before adoption was Malcolm.
- (2) He was on sale (50% off).

APA Writing 101

Student papers usually include, at minimum, (1) a title page; (2) page numbers; (3) text (content); and (4) a reference list (APA, 7th edition, pg. 29).

Tips & Tricks

Students should include the following elements on the title page: (1) title of the paper; (2) name of each author of the paper; (3) affiliation of the author, typically the University attended; (4) course number and course name; (5) instructor name; (6) assignment due date (month, date, year); and (7) page number.

The title should summarize the main idea of the paper simply and, if possible, in a way that is engaging for readers. For research papers, it should be a concise statement of the main topic of the research and should identify the variables or theoretical issues under investigation and the relationship between them (APA, 7th edition, p.30).
